2005-2006

Another Time, Another Place.....

INDIA, a word that brings different images to different people. A land of temples and palaces. A land of snakes and tigers. A land of riches and poverty. And the list goes on...

No single journey to India is enough to satiate the inquisitive traveller. In the following pages you will find a series of suggested itineraries, which depict the richness of the culture and traditions of this vast sub-continent.

This year we are also introducing 'Featured Departures' which are led by a professional who have excelled in their own fields and share their love and passion for India. Besides being wonderful travel companions they offer us new perspectives and enliven the journey with their experiences.

Our tours are designed to operate individually with private services on dates that suit you. You travel in the comfort of your own private air-conditioned vehicle, with a chauffeur and local English speaking guide (French, Spanish, German and other major language guides are also available).

Our own office in India gives us the advantage of ensuring quality services and access to the best rates. We look forward to welcoming you on board, one of the most fascinating journeys of your life.
